

CHRIS FULLER

INSPIRED KEYNOTES

Embracing the Leadership Adventure

With a unique mixture of inspiration and perspiration (motivation and methodology), Chris brings leadership lessons to life in a vibrant way that is high-energy, inspiring, and themed around adventure.

His keynotes expand past the motivational to thought-provoking insights behind successful leadership execution. By combining his high-energy delivery of powerful lessons that keep people engaged with actionable takeaways that equip them for success—each keynote resonates long after Chris has left the stage.

As a Certified Speaking Professional who has spoken globally to tens of thousands on leadership, sales, teamwork, EQ, success, and organizational change and culture, Chris Fuller's high-energy, adventure-based keynotes captivate a room and bring leadership lessons to life in a unique and powerful way.

Meet Chris Chris has experienced leadership at every level imaginable—from being an unprepared, first-time leader to advising C-Suite leaders at Fortune 500s—and everywhere in between. He's spent decades running and scaling businesses, training and developing leaders, and preparing teams to reach their highest summits.

He's the author of Iditarod Leadership: Unleashing the Power of the Team and InSPIRED Leadership: Your Proven Path to Remarkable Results, and he travels the world equipping organizations to execute with excellence and create teams that deliver results and build cultures that other organizations can only dream about.

Adventure inspires Chris, and as a result, he's experienced a few adventures most people would never attempt. He's traveled to Nome, Alaska to mush an Iditarod dogsled team. He's choppered into base camp at Mount Everest to be as near as possible to the top of the world. He attended the America's Cup sailing competition to watch those engineering marvels fly over the water, and went out in a retired Stars and Stripes boat to try his own hand as part of the crew of an America's Cup boat.

Each of these experiences taught him more about leadership, and he returned inspired, ready to tackle the next great leadership adventure. Using these and other stories, Chris brings a new look at leadership through the lens of adventure and inspires attendees to take their leadership to the next level.

“ Chris customized an incredible experience on Strategic Thinking for Operational Leaders that was delivered with impact, action, and passion. ”

The Keynotes

If you are looking for yet another typical corporate speaker, reciting boring facts and statistics from a tired and uninspiring slide deck, then Chris Fuller probably isn't for you.

But if you want your organization to learn from a veteran business consultant who believes life is an adventure to be lived, not a crisis to be survived—and leadership is a privilege to be passionately pursued—then Chris Fuller is exactly the speaker you need!

While each keynote can be customized to fit your organization, broadly speaking they fall under these big ideas:

InSPIRED Leadership

Inspired organizations have inspiring cultures with inspiring results because they have leaders who live out the InSPIRED success principles.

InSPIRED Teaming

Organizational dreams are placed in the hands of operational teams. How teams relate, integrate, and execute determines whether the dream is inspired to new heights or derailed into dysfunction.

Iditarod Leadership

Leverage the amazing adventure to stimulate your leaders to think about their role in new ways, overcome adversity, and unleash the power of their team in pursuit of big goals.

Leading through Difficult Times

Difficult times call for Inspired Leadership. It is in the times of struggle and adversity that true leadership is revealed and deployed.

Secrets of Achieving Amazing Sales Results

Inspire your team to achieve amazing sales results through the proven practice of becoming Trusted Advisors and leveraging SalesEQ.

“Chris is the Best of the Best— at the top of his game— and getting better!”

“The information was inspirational and critical to aspiring leaders.”

When was the last time your event left people inspired and buzzing about producing remarkable results?
