

INSPIRED LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

A Proven Path to Remarkable Results

The Experience

Adventure is out there—from the highest peaks of Everest to the thrill of the America's Cup sailing. Whatever adventure means for you, this experience drawn from real-life adventures will challenge you to reconnect with what inspires you.

Participants will learn how to leverage that inspiration to fuel intentional planning, superior service, seamless integration, productive relationships, and flawless execution.

But what happens when the workforce is uninspired and disengaged? In short, your organization fills with zombies who check out as soon as they clock in instead of inspired leaders who can't wait to deliver awesome every single day.

Based on years of one-on-one coaching, training, and interaction with some of the most recognized brands in the world, it empowers people to become the kind of leader people talk about for all the right reasons.

The Adventurers

- C-Suite Leaders will learn to tap into personal and organizational inspiration and harness the passion that drives people to succeed. They'll be empowered to integrate and lead teams that achieve remarkable results.
- Mid-Level Leaders will be reinvigorated to reconnect with the shared organizational vision and learn how to bring that vision to life for those they lead. They'll be ready to inspire and equip their teams to fully engage with passion.
- Front-Line Leaders will discover how to engage everyone, every day with inspired passion to deliver over-the-top service. They'll learn how to achieve integrated execution and inspire others to deliver their very best.

Chris Fuller is a veteran business consultant who believes life is an adventure to be lived, not a crisis to be survived—and leadership is a privilege to be passionately pursued. He's experienced leadership at every level imaginable—from being an unprepared, first-time leader to advising C-Suite leaders at Fortune 500—and everywhere in between. He's spent decades running and scaling businesses, training and developing leaders, and preparing teams to reach their highest summits. Chris now leads a team of facilitators who love leveraging tales of real-life adventure to bring critical leadership lessons to life.

“ One of the best leadership development experiences I've ever taken.”

The Objectives

- Increase employee engagement by equipping leaders with the InSPIRED Leadership Pathway™ to engage with passion and purpose.
- Eliminate chaos and decision-making clutter with a proven method for making more intentional choices that position entire organizations to win.
- Empower leaders to thrive in your organization, decreasing turnover and burnout while encouraging sustainable growth and development.

What summit could your organization reach if every single person showed up fully engaged every single day?

Participants Will Learn...

- How to become a leader everyone loves to work with.
- The InSPIRED Leadership Pathway™, a proven plan to achieve remarkable results.
- How to create an InSPIRED culture that can't help but produce raving fans.
- How to grow with scale and speed—regardless of industry.
- Why leaders must be intentional—and how to do it from anywhere in the organization
- How to create a culture of WOW service—for both internal and external customers.
- The quickest way to connect your people's passions to the organizational vision.
- How to achieve maximum integration (the “no-look-pass effect”) to minimize friction in systems, teams, relationships and to get things done.
- How leaders can discover people's strengths and position them to make their highest contributions.
- How to consistently execute with excellence and get results that drive bottom-line profitability.
- A leadership growth plan that is repeatable and sustainable.
